

Suzanne Groah, MD, M.S.P.H
Director of Spinal Cord Injury Consultation Liaison Service and of Spinal Cord Injury Research
MedStar National Rehabilitation Network
102 Irving Street, NW
Washington, DC 20010
202.877.4NRH

Suzanne Groah, MD, M.S.P.H. is currently the Director of Spinal Cord Injury Consultation Liaison Service and of Spinal Cord Injury Research at MedStar National Rehabilitation Hospital and Associate Professor of Rehabilitation Medicine at Georgetown University. Dr. Groah has been the Project Director of the federally-funded Rehabilitation Research and Training Center on Secondary Conditions after Spinal Cord Injury since 2003 and was the Project Director of the 2006-2011 National Capital Spinal Cord Injury Model System. Dr. Groah's portfolio includes clinical and research leadership in the area of spinal cord injury and she has an extensive record of publications and conferences presentations on various topics related to rehabilitation and spinal cord injury.